Dear Doctor

I have only time in the midst of the assembling of my school to thank you for your letter of the 18th and to say that I wish the Madison and the pair of Interiors renovated by Mr Barlow at his earliest convenience on the terms he mentions - $80 for the three - I am glad he likes the Interiors, they are great pets of mine, but of course it is nearest my heart to have the Madison restored and saved - Thanks for your kind interest in them -

Yours very sincerely

Dr Sir

You will probably notice an item in to days Herald about a head of Mr. A Stephens done by Saintin which had been presented to the Corcoran Gallery by the artist. As you might not understand this I write to say that the head was entrusted to me by the artist for delivery and as soon as it is properly mounted I will forward it.

Yours

To the Trustees of the Corcoran gallery —

Gentlemen.

I send this day by express a Crayon drawing of the late Stephen A. Douglas. of Illinois — done from life in 1860. by E. Sainton during his residence in this country.

Last summer when in the artists studio in Paris. I suggested his sending the head where it would have some interest he readily consented to do so — I agreeing to frame & forward it to your institution.

I hope you may consider it worth a place in your building — and will acknowledge its receipt to the artist — Mr Emile Sainton. 56 Rue de Rocher. Paris.

Most Truly Yours

Dear Sir,

I observe on the portrait of Mr Douglas a signature of "E. Saintin Newyork 1860." and also of "J. E. Saintin" as the donor of the picture. I find in a catalogue of the Exposition, the name of Jules-Emile Saintin. As I am about to enter the work on our printed catalogue, I wish to have the name of the artist & donor correct. Please inform me which is his proper name?

Yours truly

Wm MacLeod

Dear Sir

I understand the Corcoran Gallery is now buying portraits of distinguished Americans and I have three very fine and original portraits I would like to dispose of, viz:

Genl. Jackson by Charles Wilson Peale

Danl Webster " J.R. Lambdin

Henry Clay " J.R. Lambdin

all undoubted originals from life.

The portraits are very fine, and in the very best condition —
I want 500$ for the Jackson, and 150$ each for the Webster & Clay. If you desire to purchase, & think favorably of the purchase I will forward them to Washington for your inspection.

Very truly Yours

Wm M. Lord Esq
My Dear Sir

Your favor of the 29th ult. came duly to hand.
In reference to the three historical portraits I have for sale, I wish to say that I offer them for sale simply because I have not room for them in my house, as I have been collecting Dramatic portraits and prints largely, during the past five years, and have changed the character of my collection exclusively to pictures relating in some way to the Stage and its history.

The portrait of Jackson by Charles Wilson Peale is in uniform, and a fine work, in remarkably fine condition. While the Clay & Webster are fine original examples of S. P. Lambdin this being here, & of undoubted originality, as is the Peale —. I would like exceedingly to see them in the Corcoran Gallery as I know then they will be safe for all time to come.

If you think it advisable, I will forward them on to you care for the inspection of the Board of Directors, and if they decide not to take them then will be no great harm done.

There is certainly no place so appropriate for their deposit as the Corcoran Gallery, and were I assured it I would most willingly present the pictures to it, but the past three years has been so disastrous to the Amusement business, that I really do not feel able to do so, at this time.

Very truly yours
William S. Emmell.
